MESSAGE FROM THE SCSUNAA PRESIDENT

Dear Alumni and Friends,

This centenary (100th) year's convention theme "A Renewed Commitment to Our Legacy" aligns with the South Carolina State University National Alumni Association's platform, "It Takes All Three to Stand – Our University, Our Stakeholders, and Our Prize-Winning Students" as we cross into a new era. Extraordinary things are happening at OUR university and I hope you make plans to attend the SCSUNAA convention in Washington, DC, July 26-29, 2018, to learn about these measurable successful outcomes.

Please take a moment to review the convention publication, as it is filled with great information! As you peruse the events scheduled, please notice that it includes something for ALL – young alumni, seasoned alumni, university officials, students, friends, families, and corporate partners. Your participation is important to the success of our university and our students. South Carolina State University is special to all of us!

I encourage you to support our National Alumni Association, South Carolina State University, and students by registering to attend OUR convention and encouraging others to do the same. As always, this convention is an exciting time to reconnect with old friends and classmates to reminisce about the days walked on the SCSU campus as a student.

See you in July in our nation's capital - Washington, DC at OUR SCSUNAA Centenary (100th) Year Convention!

With Bulldog Tenacity,

John J. Funny, National President
South Carolina State University
National Alumni Association
